16. The contractor or his employees while on duty at Toll-gates, shall appear in clean dress or in any uniform which the Board may prescribe.

17. The contractor shall arrange for a clear red light such as may be prescribed by the Board to be put up on the gate during the nights to give adequate warning to approaching vehicles.

18. The contractor shall conform generally to the provisions of the Road Traffic and [illegible]es Regulation and to the Rules, Orders, Notices, etc., issued thereunder. He shall recognise all exemptions made by the Statute or Rules in force for the time being. He shall pay special attention to the points mentioned in Schedule 'C'.

19. Any breach of the above conditions or rules on the part of the contractor or his servants will entail the foreiture of the deposit or the levy of a fine not exceeding Rs. 50 for each infringement. If the fine be not paid or in the event of instalments or other sums due not being paid within the prescribed date, it shall be competent to the Deputy Commissioner to suspend the further collection of toll by the contractor and dispose of the right to collect the toll during the remaining period by a resale or otherwise. The resale will be held at the risk of the defaulting contractor who shall be liable to make good all losses accruing but shall not be entitled to any profits arising from the resale.

Note.—The Sub-Division, Assistant Commissioners and the Officers of the Traffic Board authorised by a notification of the Board in this behalf are also empowered to punish the contractor or his servants for any breach of the above conditions or rules either by the levy of a fine or a forfeiture of the deposit. But the power to suspend the collection of toll as well as the right to order its resale shall be reserved to the Deputy Commissioner.

20. The imposition of fine or resale of the contract shall be no bar to the prosecution of the contractor or his employees for any offence or to the institution of other legal steps against them under any law in force for the time being.

21. Bidders shall abide by the conditions of the sale set out below which shall be deemed to form part of this notification.

Conditions of Sale.

1. Persons intending to bid at the sale must attend in person or by a duly accredited agent.

2. The amount by which the biddings are to be increased shall be determined by the Officer conducting the sale. In the event of any dispute arising as to the amount of the bid or as to the bidder, the right to collect tolls at the toll-gate concerned shall at once again be put up to auction.

3. The officer conducting the sale shall not be bound to accept all bids as a matter of course. It shall be in his discretion to decline the acceptance of the highest bid or any bid whatever.

4. It shall be in the discretion of the officer conducting the sale to adjourn it to a date and hour specified by him.

5. For particulars re the rates of tolls on motor and non-motor vehicles, exemptions and Schedules, please see pages 631 to 637 in Part III—2 of the Mysore Gazette, dated 22nd April 1937.
